

Linda's Reading Habits Text

I prefer watching a film, but I also like to read books. Sometimes when I feel like reading, which is quite often, I start to read. When I choose books, most of the time I read the blurbs on the back covers. I like every genre.

The last book I read was Toilet bound Hanako-Kun 3. It's a Manga, a special kind of book where you start reading from the back. A girl named Nene Yashiro meets a ghost named Hanako and she also meets a guy named Kou Minamoto, who wants to eliminate ghosts. After a few tries to capture the ghost, Kou gives up and they all become friends. They experience many adventures; I can't tell you more about it because the 4th part isn't released yet. My favourite character was Hanko (His real name is Amane Yugi) because he kind of reminds me of myself. He's The 7th School legend and the most powerful legend. He has big round orange eyes, straight black hair, is about 5 feet tall, strong and he's a great fighter. He also likes donuts. He had a brother, but he died earlier than Hanako/Amane Yugi.

I really enjoyed the books, because they were fun, and I really liked the stories. This series of books is my favourite because it's fun and sometimes very exciting.
